

The Beloved Priest & Priestess

Immortal Soul Line IV
Love's Energy Heals Invisible Wounds

Heart to Heart Compassionate Transmissions

Beloved Priests and Priestesses lead with their hearts. They've evolved from an empathic species of immortal beings who have forever dedicated themselves to alleviating emotional and spiritual pain. Much like the Physical Healer, those who identify with this Immortal Soul Line often find themselves stretched too thin as they attempt to offer condolence and guidance to all who have lost their way.

These souls attract people who are hungry for compassion and emotional support. Their natural empathy and innate talents enable them to sort out the truth behind the scenes and discern where healing needs to begin.

They often work tirelessly by encouraging, listening, and counseling. Priests and Priestesses can project and utilize their own life force as they work to heal the broken souls of those who seek their assistance. Unfortunately, if not managed correctly, this can lead to a depletion of their own vital resources.

The swirling vibrant vortex that's associated with this Soul Line is known as the heart chakra, also the fourth chakra. When healthy, this energy center sends brilliant green rays spiraling into the person's aura and spreads outward to enclose others in its healing essence.

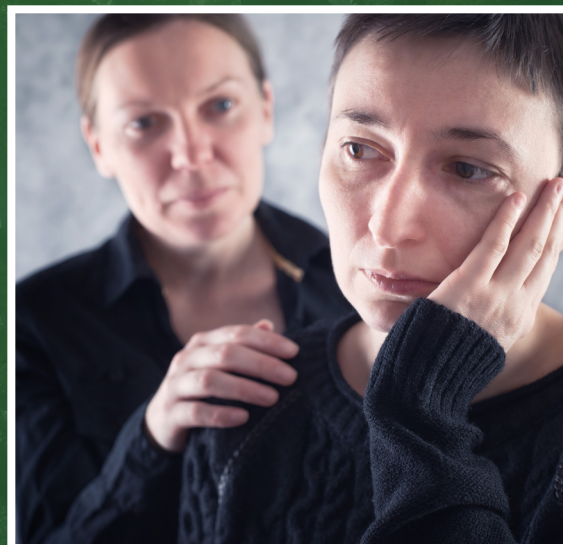

We all rely on this Soul Line and need to help sustain them whenever possible. We're blessed with their wisdom and ability to help us recover from trauma and emotional upheavals.

These Beloved beings are our best friends who listen unfailingly. They may be our mothers or fathers, sisters or brothers, valued friends or new acquaintances. But no matter who they are, they bring a shoulder to lean on in the worst of times. We find this Soul Line active in our counselors, teachers, pastors, social workers, and others who dedicate their lives to acts of service.

Do you find it easy to listen to others and offer advice when needed? Do others seek you out for conversation, counsel, and uplifting exchanges? Do you find it difficult to watch others suffer? Does your heart long to “fix” the world, protect the vulnerable, make life fair for everyone, and rescue those in need?

These are the kinds of feelings and experiences shared by Beloved Priests and Priestesses the world over. They're united in their dedication to alleviate suffering and enhance emotional and psychological healing.

Dear Beloved, as you learn to use your gifts that enable you to repair wounded hearts, your own heart will mend, and your healing capacity will become limitless!
